A GREAT AND GOOD MAN GONE! Death of Major-General George H. Thomas.

The nation is again shocked at the death of another of her great and good benefactors. The news of the death of Maj.-Gen. Geo. H. Thomas, which occurred in the city of San Francisco, California, on last Tuesday, the 29th ult . will sink deep into the hearts of millions of mourning freemen, and none will deplere his loss with deeper sorrow and regret than the loyal people of Tennessee. He has gone to that bourne from whence no traveler returns; but he has left a name as imperishable as Time itself. Sleep sweetly, brave and noble soldier!

EAST TENNESSEE CORRECT!

A REPUBLICAN TRIUMPH.

It is our infinite pleasure, this week to announce to the world that old Washington county has again wheeled into the Republican line, and has fully redeemed her name from the disgrace of last August. The canvass surpassed, in excitement and energetic effort upon the part of the candidates, any county contest we have had for a number of years. The Democracy, staying itself upon the August majority, was confident of success; but the Republicans were equally hopeful. The result shows that many men are returning to reason, and have determined no longer to remain in a party that is controlled and actuated only by selfish motives.

"The colored troops fought nobly! This class of voters, upon whom had been brought all the appliances of cajolery and deception, treated the Democracy with deserved contemptthat party which has held up its hands in holy horror over their disfranchisement. Not to be led by their enemies. to a man, they stood firm to their friends, not forgetting, in the hour of need, those gallant men who have advocated and labored for the recognition and protection of all of their rights.

Every office in this county is filled by trustworthy, competent and loval men, steadfast and uncompromising Republicans.

This is a triumph over which every man, who bears the name of a Republican, should rejoice. It is a popular vindication of his political principles. -a verdict of the justness of his political cause.

But our gratification does not stop here, The foul batch of disloyal devisings, embraced under the name of the "New Constitution," was repudiated by our people. They want no change in our State organism to pamper the rich and oppress the poor; no disfranchisement because of the misfortune of poverty; no encumbrance and no fetters upon the elective right of any one, save for crime.

Nor is this all. The news from nearto the effect that the Republican ticket whiskey, and their anaconda is the still mistake. His contribution could not and while up stairs, he forced this child ized, and will not fritter away its advantages for any consideration. It will retrieve the losses of the past, and again control the interests and destinies of the country.

"SENTER UNT SUFFRAGE."

The Nashville rebel-Democratic papers are after giving Senter mit a few fits, because he has asked for Federal troops. They act on the plan of the old woman that whipped her boy awhile to correct him, and then spanked him in the same place she hit him before. They call him "Knave," "Imbecile,' "Mulishly stubborn," &c. They tell in actually quoting from the book-

what the Code authorized him to do and "why didn't he call out a 'posse, (supposed to mean a gang of Ku-Klux in day-light) to suppress the disturbance," and "why didn't he offer rewards (supposed to mean the granting of liberal advertisements for rebel papers) for wrong doers."

They finally conclude that Senter is going to out-Herod Herod-that he will "play false." Why, of course he will. Didn't you know that ever . ice

Go in, ye rusties! Give Senter a dose mit the fits! Rub the rust and forked board is up. Fire away! You'll get bull's beef or tan-bark!

ANOTHER MIVE TOWARDS ENTRALIZATION.

We copy the following from the Nashville Union and American:

"Mr Honr, a Massachusetts Representaive in Congress, has introduced a bill in the House, providing for a Federal system of Education ; and the bill has been referred to the Committee on Education and Labor .-It provides for the appointment, by the President, of three State superintendents for each State, who shall have control of the educational interest of the State. The State is to be divided into as many divisions as it has representatives; each division is to have a divided into school districts. So soon as the President sends his document to the House it will be referred to the Comwill present a full and complete statement of the trials, troubles and persecutions which the loyal men of Tennessee are compelled to undergo, under the administration of the party elected last August; and the Judge will not stop here, for he is already prepared to give his recommendation as to the best possible way to effect a remedy, and this remedy will in all probability be the overthrow of tho present powers that be. The fife and drum will again startle the Ku Klux Klan from their reverie of carnage and theft. And it is further intimated that the order, sending troops among those of the late so-called, will be so constructed that the troops will be quartered upon the Just as we predicted, last week, the unrepentant Rebels, who need this infamous document, known as the New fastening care from the General Gov-

AN OUTRAGE. Friday last, we had another of those infamous outrages perpetrated in our city. A large burly negro compelled a little black girl only ten years old to satisfy his base desires. The circumstances were as follows: The little girl was sent up stairs to get the soiled to yield to him. Fortunately, the villain was arrested, and now occupies one of the rooms in the building, which is arranged as to soften the rays of the sun by screeing them through iron "Yesterday the Grand Jury, now in session, bars. One thing is certain, unless issued subpoenss for the negro signers of the petition to the President for relief and protection to the President for Capitol. We admit the record is not a desirable one but "truth is stranger than fiction." The Pension office under the management of Dr. H. Van Aernam is fast disposing of the great many old cases remaining on the list of "Hard" and

"Tough," snags which for years have mined to work off as fast as possible all applications. One thing, the soldiers who so nobly stepped into the ranks to defend the nation, may depend upon, and that is, if their cases are merritoeffected, and the worthy receive the proper acknowledgment of their disabilities in getting aid by a pension .-Dr. Van Aernam has the medical and legal knowledge as well as the executive ability to conduct the Pension Bureau, equally as well, if not better, than any of his predecessors. MURDER-FOUND GUILTY. The black man, Nicholds, who murdered his wife and mother-in-law last fall, was on Saturday morning found guilty of malicious murder, and it certainly was. The old dodge, insanity, would not work this time. It was tried, but the jury "couldn't see it in that light," and, consequently, a verdict of guilty of murder.

OUR BAD BOYS are among the institutions of Washington, and one would be surprised at the great amount of profanity, obscepity and idleness the rising generation are able to dispose of it the course of the day; and it is evident that the present youth of this city are coming up in such a way as will help support the demand for private apartments in our city and State institutions, so wisely provided for those who are found dissatisfied with the stringent laws, governing property and life. We have a band of boys here; thirteen of them, however, came to grief Saturday. This band seems to be thoroughly organized and officered. The principal object of this troup is the commission of depredations upon the stands of our out-door merchants, vulgarily called "hucksters" and "pea-nut dealers." This band of little immortals also indulge in the pleasing sport of cursing ladies and gentlemen, who pass the different rendezvous of this newly established "or-

Welcome to the Southern Republienns.

[From the Washington Chronicle, 26th ult.]
The meeting at Lincoln Hall, last evening was in all respects such a demonstration as ought to be respected by every Republican member and Senator in Congress. The full report of the proceedings will be found most of Governor R. K. Scott, of South Carolina, was a fine text for Congressional reflection. and alike when spoken and when indorsed by Governor Rufus B. Bullock, of Georgia, was greeted with incessant applause. The appearance of these two brave executives on the platform was heartily welcomed by the audience. The remarks of the different representatives of the Southern delegations were pointed and full of facts.

Republicans in Congress may rest assured that the spirit of this significant meeting is that of their constitutions. No question of the day excites a more general interest in the Republican ranks. The loyal people of America feel that the Bingham amendment will surrender Georgia to rebel rule. The treachery of Swann, in Maryland, and Walker, in Virginia, and the shameless ingratitude of the Democrats of Tennessee, will find swift mitation in Georgia, to the otter destruction of loyal men and loyal inerests, if that amendment is not defeated .-The Republicans in Congress are aware that the people can only be satisfied with justice to the true men of the South. They ask for nothing but fair desling, but they excep and demand that when States are to be reconstructed the voice of those who saved the Government shall not be disregarded out of respect to those who sought its destructtion. In shorter phrase, they insist that loyalty shall not be made odious by the servants of a patriotic people, Present Help in Time of Need.

Protection is what our poor brethren in the South demand. The present is their time of need. If protection is not speedily rendered, many a precious life will be cut off, and many a fireside will be made desolate forever.

Throughout the South murders are daily, almost hourly, committed. A sickening story, constantly repeated and never ending, is told by letters and telegrams which reach Washington rom every quarter of the South.

No wonder that many Senators are convinced that something must immediately be done to stop the outrages of rebels in the South.

This conviction forcing itself upon the minds of Senators checked the regular progress of debate on the Georgia question vesterday.

Almost all the time devoted to the open session was occupied with earnest peeches in favor of a measure to stop utrages in the South by sending troops to the disorderly districts at the expense of the people of the localities where the crimes are committed .-Messrs. Nye, Yates, and Thayer advo-cated the cause of the outraged loyal-Messrs. Nye, Yates, and Thayer advoists of the South with an earnestness and eloquence which did credit to both head and heart.

We hope our friends in the Senate will speedily act on the pending measre of relief for the suffering people .-Whether as a part of the Georgia bill or as an independent measure let it speedily become a law. The least the dovernment can do for the faithful people who stood by it in the war is to give them its protection. Unless it act speedily, however, it will only guard heir graves, when it should protect hem in life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. - Washington Chronicle 26th.
